

The European People's Party (EPP) is currently recruiting a Audiovisual Producer (m/f)

The European People's Party (EPP) offers at its headquarters in Brussels a contract of 10 months starting as from September onward. You will be affiliated with the Communication and Marketing Department of the EPP, and work for the Digital Campaign Manager and the Creative Director for the next European elections.

The EPP will work with its member parties and associations during the campaign to elect members of the European Parliament, to cement the EPP as the largest group in the EP and to elect the next President of the European Commission.

Tasks:

- Write and edit scripts and create storyboards
- Decide on filming locations, often on the move, at events, campaign stops, debates
- Create and incorporate creative ideas to achieve the best possible visual result
- Work together with the camera operator on technical requirements (e.g. lighting and camera movements, sound recording requirements, vision effects and graphics and transitions)
- Guide the creative team to ensure all members are in sync with the requirements
- Work together with the video editor to make the final cut

Requirements:

- Good people skills and ability to negotiate
- Creativity and imagination
- Proven experience as a producer of short videos and ads
- Familiarity with camera operation, sound systems, special effects and music editing
- Time management

Experience: Junior to Mid-level

Remuneration: Based on experience

How to apply

Send your English CV and portfolio to gh@epp.eu by 15 August. Please note that only the shortlisted candidates will be contacted.

The European People's Party (EPP) is the largest political party at European level, with 77 member parties from 41 countries and the largest Group in the European Parliament. A staff of 25 people from all over Europe works in the EPP headquarters in Brussels, creating a truly European work environment.